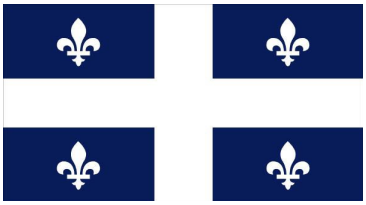
West Virginia Higher Education Policy Commission

Global West Virginia

Affordable Statewide Study Abroad Programs



Montreal, Québec, Canada
June 27-July 22, 2016

This 4-week program at the Université du Quebec à Montreal (UQAM) led by West Virginia State University and Fairmont State University; includes a French immersion and an academic course taught in English, lodging in the heart of downtown Montreal, and various excursions. Cost: $2650 - includes six-credit hours (from WVSU), lodging, and insurance. Does not include airfare (around $400), meals (students will have a kitchen and fridge for cooking), and optional excursions outside of Montreal.

Puebla, Mexico
June 13-July 8, 2016

This 4-week intensive academic and cultural program is a coordinated effort between the U.S. Embassy in Mexico, the governments of the State and City of Puebla, and eight of the state's private and public universities, each of which is ranked among the top higher education institutions in Mexico. Of the eight universities, each one offers two different courses (taught in English) from which the participants may choose one. Additionally, the program offers a 48-hour Spanish immersion. Cost: $2350 – includes six-credit hours, lodging, meals, and insurance. Does not include airfare (around $400).

For more information about these WVHEPC-sponsored program, contact:
Dr. Clark Egnor, Director, Office of International Programs
West Virginia Higher Education Policy Commission
clark.egnor@wvhepc.edu Tel: 304-558-0261