

International Community Service Learning Antigua, Guatemala

Travel Dates:

June 3-16, 2012

Class Instruction Dates:

Summer I session 2012

Price

$1,200.00

Cost includes:

- Airport transport
- 3 meals a day
- Home stay with a Guatemalan family
- Trip to Lake Atitlan
- One-on-one Spanish language instruction
- Community Service Learning Project
- Trip to Camino Seguro in Guatemala City
- Museum entry

Not included in price:

- Passport fees
- Airfare (approx. $500)
- Travel Insurance
- Money for souvenirs and incidentals
- Tuition payment for course credit

Deposit of $400 due by March 1, 2012

Shepherd University Social Work Program

Students will have the opportunity to learn about the past and present social context in Guatemala, gain a greater understanding of the global dynamics of power and poverty, and contribute to the community through service projects. Students will construct a home for an impoverished family, join Guatemalan Social Workers on home visits, receive one-on-one Spanish language instruction, and have the opportunity to build personal relationships through local homestays with Guatemalan families.

For further information and forms, please visit
the Shepherd University
Study Abroad Website